WE

ARE

2015

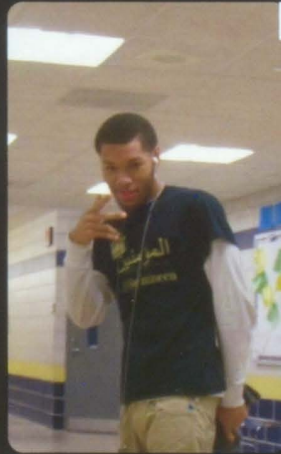

It's

OUR

TIME!

Words of Life

To the Bold Class of 2015,

We've made it! At last, we have both gotten pass some important stages of our lives. You are graduating from high school, and I survived my first year as principal! While you must be elated and shouting to the tops of your lungs with joy about your accomplishments, I hate to be the one to tell you: ITS ONLY THE BEGINNING FOR THE BOTH OF US!

This next stage requires more of you. This next stage requires you to find "YOU." The noise and influence of your peers will lessen. The noise and the restrictions of your parents will lessen, and the noise and demands of your school leaders will lessen! They will lessen to a faint whisper, but loudly you will begin to hear your inner voice screaming, "This is who I really am! That voice should move you to fulfilling your destiny. For me, my inner voice led me to becoming an educator. A challenge I have never regretted, and the success of my students keeps me hopeful about the future. However, what you are born to become will uniquely benefit the world. Do not be afraid to nurture that calling. Oprah Winfrey said it best when she said, "I've come to believe that each of us has a personal calling that is as unique as a fingerprint - and that the best way to succeed is to discover what you love and then find a way to offer it to others in the form of service." Find out what you love, then go to school for it and master it. Please I beg you, do not let ANYTHING stop you from fulfilling your destiny.

Do not let...

Arrogance
Naysayers
You
Timidity
Helplessness
Idleness
Negativity
Greed

stop you from putting your imprint on the world.

Do not be afraid to work hard, fail sometimes, learn from someone else, be patient and trust God! I know you will make it because I did! I know you are a leader because you are forever apart of the Family of Leaders: CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI.

If we have not taught you anything else, remember that YOUR LIFE MATTERS and that a successful future begins with the decisions you make in the present! Make us proud! BIG BLUE FOR LIFE!

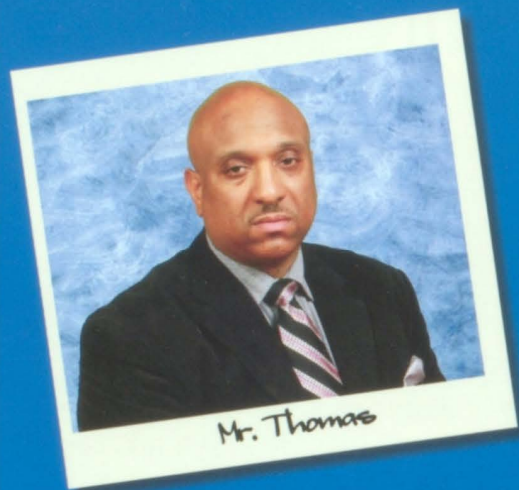

By the way, that SKY BLUE and WHITE cap and gown looks so good on you!!!

*Love ya,
Principal Sharnee Brown*

A message from the Academy Vice Principal...

Greetings Class of 2015

As you prepare to close this chapter of your life, never forget the many lessons that you learned while attending Central High School. I am not referencing lessons of academia, but of life. Each morning, for four years, you were met by adults that invested in you. We encouraged you to work hard, to be respectful, and to give back. Continue to live by these virtues and always remember to keep on trying until you reach the highest ground.

Peace and Blessings

Social Justice Academy

A message from the Academy Vice Principal...

To all of the Social Justice Action Academy students who "STOOD UP" for the rights of Girls all over the world to be able to read and get an education...I salute you! To all of the Social Justice Action Academy students that participated in the Voter Registration Drive of 2013-2014, you were a very important component in the election of Mayor Ras Baraka ... I salute you. To all of you who participated in the Close Up Club: Sajaadah Al-Amin, Aliya Duncan, Priscilla Ampomsah, Damien-Rainey Jones, Alexius Robinson and Cornelia Bulle I enjoyed working with you immensely! It was actually exciting meeting you here at 6AM to get breakfast ready for the teachers. Aliya's grandmother Mrs. Duncan is a trooper! We could not have done anything without her. You all were the first to have a Community Game Night and Open Mic at the new Central High School. I love you all to life! Even though we did not meet our final goal, the life lessons were invaluable. You are in my prayers. I dedicate Gandhi's words to you: "Be the change you want to see in the world."

Asta Amar
Valedictorian

Dear Class of 2015,

Rise above the noise and pressures that surround you and push for the never-failing miracle of progress. Don't shrink from risks and tune out those critics and cynics. History rarely yields to one person, but think and never forget what happens when it does. That can be you, that should be you and that must be you.

Oyinkansola Malomo
Salutatorian

To the class of 2015 and those thereafter: I came to America for the very first time when I was 14 years of age. Imagine that? A young girl from Nigeria coming to the U.S. to live up the "American Dream." The first year was challenging, but with courage and the determination to succeed I made it through, and 4 years later I have enrolled into Penn State University for the next seven years and plan to major in Dentistry, obtaining my bachelors and Doctorate. The road to success is not an easy road traveled but by the end of it that very road is a road worth remembering.

My favorite quote/Farewell Message to the Class of 2015 is... "You may not always have a comfortable life and you will not always be able to solve all of the world's problems at once, but don't ever underestimate the importance you can have because history has shown us that courage can be contagious, and hope can take on a life of its own." - Michelle Obama. Best wishes to you all!

Ismael Cissoko

My favorite quote/Farewell Message to the Class of 2015 is... "Your time is limited, so don't waste it living someone else's life. Don't let the noise of others' opinions drown out your own inner voice. And most important, have the courage to follow your heart and intuition." - Steve Jobs

Class of 2015 Advisor Message

To The Class of 2015,

I have watched you grow taller, stronger and become "Centralized" over the past years. I am sure each of you are much wiser than you realize at this moment. Life has a way of revealing many years later, the lessons learned in school that were not found in a textbook. It is my hope that the lessons learned in class and through all of your Central High School experiences will serve as a platform to enrich your future endeavors.

This school year has had many challenges. I am so glad that we made it to the end! Jerry Zucker once said, "It doesn't matter that your dream came true if you spent your whole life sleeping." As you close this chapter of your lives, to some of you I say Wake UP! You have reached the crossroads of life. It's time you transform into mature responsible young adults that are ready to embark on a journey that will lead you to success. To others, I implore you to not just simply dream dreams, but continue to put in the hard work and persevere to accomplish even greater than you dreamed. Lastly, stay awake to experience the rewards of your diligence. Congratulations Class of 2015. Go Big Blue! Be proud of yourselves! I am so very proud of you all.

Sincerely,
Ms. Lucinda Eason

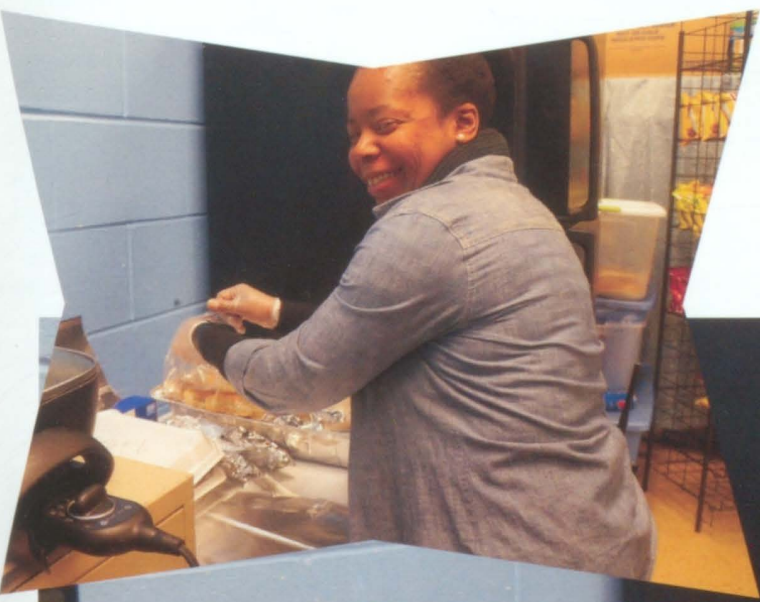

Class of 2015 Advisor Message

Dear Class of 2015,

This year has truly been a journey for us all. I am so proud of each and every one of you. I hope and pray that you continue on the road toward success. Don't let anyone or anything prevent you from getting there, not even yourselves. You are destined for greatness!

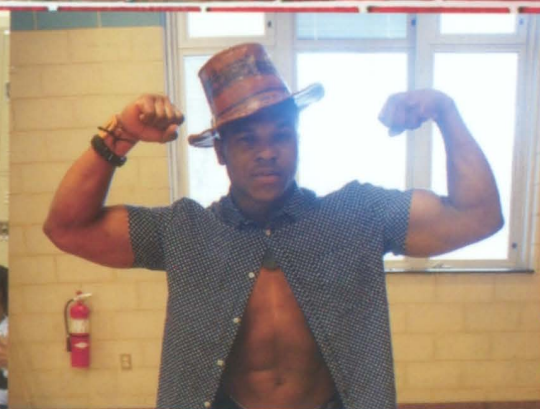

Love Always,
Ms. Walker

BLACK LIVES MATTER!

Black lives matter is a movement started by Central High School's class of 2015. It was developed to emphasize the value of people within the communities' lives, by promoting healthy communication leading to nonviolent solutions and overall peace. As a result, we would like to call attention to the value of Blacks and Latinos' lives in the community.

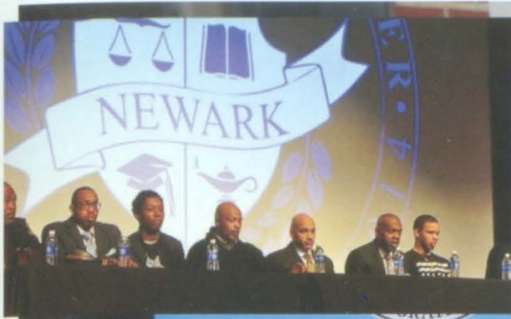

We are not victims but our own advocates. We want to galvanize our community to create connections in order to reduce negative perceptions, improve the quality of life for all those in the community, such as the conditions from what we eat to safety in our streets. It is not normal to feel threatened in our community. By changing the viewpoint of indifferent and apathetic youth, we will change their mentality and promote life, self-worth, self-awareness, and knowledge of each other. We are tired of the perception of our people, and we will expose any sub-standard conditions and demand improvement.

From the time you were born, I spoke prosperity into your life. I marked you for G-D, which would put you in opposition with strife. I believed you would make the right decisions for your life, and now my prayers are coming to fruition. As you journey into adulthood, you will come upon many roadblocks, you will have to jump many hurdles, and most of all you will have to believe in yourself as this all occurs. Never give up, always fight to achieve, and look defeat straight in the face and win!!!! We will love you forever! CONGRATULATIONS!
